DAYTON, OHIO 45409 AREA CODE 513 461-5500 EXT. 500

DAYTON, Ohio, February 20, 1968 --- Mr. O. Edmund Clubb, a former Foreign Service officer with 24 years of service, 18 in China; and Mr. Donald M. Anderson, a State Department official who has been interpreter in ambassadorial talks with Communist China in Warsaw, Poland, are the top experts for the Symposium on China at the University this Saturday, February 24. The program, which starts at 9 a.m. and runs to 4:30 p.m., is co-sponsored by the University's Department of History, Student Government and Special Sessions, and the American Friends Service Committee, Dayton Regional Office.

Cooperating agencies for the program are the Church Federation of Greater Dayton, Central YMCA Adult Program Department, Dayton Council on World Affairs, United Theological Seminary, Sinclair Community College and Wright State University. It is under the chairmanship of Dr. Wilfred Steiner, Chairman of UD's Department of History.

The symposium will open with a general session address by Mr. Anderson, who is a graduate of Louisiana State University and has spent most of the last 10 years in the Far East. Small group sessions will follow at 10:30 a.m. Professorial experts on China and the Far East from UD, Wright State, Youngstown University, Wilmington College, Wittenberg University, University of Cincinnati and Antioch College will lead these discussions.

Mr. Clubb will give a principal address on "The Confrontation of China and The United States" at 1:30 p.m. Mr. Clubb is presently a lecturer in Government at Columbia University and also has taught at Brooklyn College, New School for Social Research, New York University, Florida State University, and Cornell University since his retirement from government service.

The program will continue at 3 p.m. with a panel discussion on "United States Policies toward Communist China, 1968-1978." Members of the panel will be Mr. Clubb, Mr. Anderson, James Gould, attorney representing Dayton Council on World Affairs; Miss Rose Tozer, Graduate Student, University of Dayton, and Dr. Harold Vinacke, University of Cincinnati.

Dr. Steiner and Dr. Rocco Donatelli, Assistant Chairman of UD's History Department, will summarize the program at 4 p.m.
